

Aristotle the arithmetic aardvark

Name .....

You need: paper

Aristotle uses the numbers on the apples to calculate a series of target numbers.

He only uses addition and subtraction, and he never uses the same apple twice in any calculation.

Show which of his numbers can be made in more than seven different ways. Show your calculations. Set out your work clearly.

